DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the *Truck Ads*TM website, as captured in December, 2002.

See the page “9 Ad Programs,” option 7, “Banner Ad”. *Truck Ads*TM discloses a method comprising the steps of providing a trailer; providing at least two advertisements; generating a series of prices based on the size of the advertisement (see the page “E-Z AD Catalog”) and the length of time the advertisement is displayed (see the page “E-Z AD Catalog”); attaching the advertisements to either sidewall or the back of the trailer; displaying both advertisements for a predetermined period of time; and removing the advertisements when the period of time has passed (see the page “The Process”).

Regarding claims 3, 9 and 16, it has been held that apparatus limitations are not entitled to patentable weight in a method claim. Ex parte Akamatsu, 22 USPQ2d 1915.

Regarding claims 4 and 5, the timing of the replacement of the advertisements is determined solely by when the respective advertisers contract to have the advertisements placed, and for how long. Therefore, the replacement of the individual advertisements is random and sometimes will, and other times will not, coincide. Both cases are inherent within the disclosure of the *Truck Ads*TM website.

Regarding claim 6, because the advertisements must exist before they are placed, they must be produced. This fact is inherent within the disclosure of the *Truck Ads*TM website.

Regarding claims 11, 12, 15 and 18, *Truck Ads*TM are available for local or regional advertising, and rates vary accordingly.

Regarding claims 14 and 20, see the page "The Process".
